The trade of Adair and adjoining counties solicited.

LEBANON, KENTUCKY.

Miss Cary Hughes and others will be at the Presbyterian church this (Wednesday) evening.

Mr. Jo Edd Flowers has commenced the erection of a residence on Greensburg street, adjoining the home of his father.

Two light frosts last week but no damage to fruit. Prospects for peaches, apples, plums and cherries the finest for years.

Road Overseers are requested to call on me and get the tools for their section at once. It is time for road working.
Jo N. Conover, Road Com.

Catalogues for the Lindsay-Wilson Training School are being printed at this office. They will be ready for distribution in about one week.

Mr. G. T. Flowers has removed his barber-shop to the front room of the News office. He has carpeted the floor, making the room inviting.

Send notice and address of ex-Adair county citizens to the invitation committee, or G. P. Smythe, Secy, and he will mail them an invitation to Adair County "Home Coming."

Insure in The Farmers Home Insurance Company, of Junction City, Ky. The only company in the State that makes any claim of paying their losses in full. (S. I. BLAIR, Agt.)

Visitors to the Sand Lick Springs last Sunday were Dr. J. T. Jones and wife, G. A. Bradshaw and wife, and Curtis Leach, all of Montpellier, Cull Grier, of Greensboro, and T. R. Stultz and Wm. F. Jeffries, of Columbia.

I am at my old stand, back of the Marum Hotel. I handle salt, lime, cement, etc., and make the buying of poultry and eggs a specialty. Give me a call, satisfaction guaranteed.
J. P. Hutchinson.

The Home Coming Committees are now doing good work. Invitations are being sent to many and if you know of some one with whom you would like to shake hands on the play-grounds of childhood, send their names and addresses to Paul Smythe, Columbia.

Mr. Earl Russell Epperson will deliver an oration at the Presbyterian church next Wednesday evening, his subject being an "Ever Present Problem." He is a son of the late W. P. Epperson, who was a native of this county, and is very talented. Go and hear him.

Mr. J. T. Goodman has removed his family from Rowena, Russell county, to Columbia. They are occupying the residence recently erected by Mr. John Lee Walker, near the home of Mr. Brack Massie. Mr. Goodman and family were gladly welcomed by the people of Columbia.

The solo rendered by Miss Martha Hancock at the Presbyterian church, last Sunday morning was given so beautifully that hundreds of compliments have been passed upon the singer. A voice of melody, perfect articulation and an easy posture has been the talk of the town.

Mr. Ohlenmacher announces his Annual Commencement Concert by his pupils for the evening of Thursday of this week. General admission will be 25 cents and as it is for the benefit of his studio, and all the other entertainments have been free, he feels that this small charge will be accepted.

Perhaps the most important Commonwealth case to be tried at the coming term of Circuit Court, is that against Judie Burbridge for killing Bill McClure. Burbridge is in jail and will be indicted soon after the convening of the grand jury. His trial will probably not come up until the second week of court. All the witnesses live in town and in the suburbs of town.

AT LINDSAY-WILSON

Misses Nina Marcum and Mary Williams Before a Large Audience.

The Recital given by Misses Nina Marcum and Mary Williams in the Lindsay-Wilson chapel Saturday evening had been anticipated with much pleasure for some time. A large and representative audience greeted these young ladies showing appreciation of their first attempt in an individual Recital. The way they held attention throughout the program speaks for itself as to their ability and worth of their selections.

Miss Marcum is exceedingly versatile; and better than all else, in whatever she does, whether pathos, humor, dialect or classical literature, she is thoroughly artistic. Her naturalness throughout her program was notable. All of her numbers were handled skillfully, but especially do we note "Abolition," one of the very best renditions of deep thought and pathos we have seen. "The Night Watch," was especially good, showing skilled handling of heavy dramatic rendering. "Sometime," a sweet and beautiful poem, was given with so much feeling, and the soft piano accompaniment played by Miss Williams, added to its charm. The unaffected and captivating manner in which she gave the humorous monologue, "The Debutante," pleased the entire audience.

We predict for Miss Marcum a very bright future in Elocutionary circles. Miss Williams rendered her numbers in a very pleasing manner, eliciting much applause. Her interpretation of Beethoven's "Adieu to the Piano," was especially fine. Miss Williams always pleases her audience and is a favorite.

"A Call to Service," the subject of Rev. A. R. Kasey's discourse at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning, was particularly suited to the occasion upon which it was delivered, being the closing sermon of the school year. Many practical and helpful thoughts were brought out in a most forcible manner which should appeal to the minds of all the students who were so fortunate as to hear him upon this subject. It's a fact that a man cannot fix his ideals too high, as was stated during the discourse. Some people might say: "Well your ideal is not the case. It is beautiful because it's true." Young men and women in school should cultivate an inspiration within themselves during their school days, so that when their education is completed they will be prepared to go out after higher and nobler things in the world, and that their aim in life will be one worthy of credit and praise. The sermon was one certainly to be appreciated by the young people.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock will occur, Paganoforte Recital of Miss Carey Hughes. This being Miss Hughes second Recital as a pupil of Mr. Ohlenmacher, it will be anticipated with much pleasure by her numerous friends. Miss Hughes is a brilliant performer and her technique is something remarkable considering the short time having been spent on an entirely new method. The program is difficult to say the least and includes compositions by the most famous composers. Miss Hughes will be assisted by Miss Margaret Taylor-expression.

Teachers of Adair county should remember that before entering an examination they will be required to take an oath that they have not had access to the questions. If any teacher should violate the oath he or she will be subject to indictment, and on conviction, serve a term in the penitentiary. The necessity must be stopped.

JUDGE A. P. SIMPSON.

A Prominent Citizen of Jamestown, Meets Death.

The intelligence of the death of this excellent gentleman reached here last Sunday morning at 6:30, the end having come thirty minutes previous. The deceased was born and reared on Crocus, Adair county, becoming a citizen of Jamestown when quite a young man, and soon thereafter entered the mercantile business and was a successful merchant for many years.

Judge Simpson's noble traits of character surrounded him with friends and he was frequently called to fill honorable stations in life. He served the county of Russell as Circuit and County Clerk; County Judge; Representative; serving in the Lower branch of the Kentucky Legislature and had been Master Commissioner. In all these stations he filled them with credit to himself and to the perfect satisfaction to the public.

Years ago he confessed his faith in the Savior of mankind, united with the Christian Church, and was consistent until God called him hence. Early in life he was united in marriage with Miss Lou Jones, who with six children survive him. He was a Royal Arch mason and was buried by the Fraternity Monday for an eon. Peace to his memory.

Died. Recently near Glenville, Mrs. Caroline Murray aged 73. The deceased was married about 50 years ago to Thomas Murray, an influential citizen of the community and who preceded her to the grave about 25 years. Her maiden name was Cabell, and was born and reared in Adair county. She attended herself many years ago to the Baptist Church but later became a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of which she lived a consistent member until death. She expressed herself willing to die and ready to meet her God. The deceased had resided many years with her son-in-law, Mr. T. O. Letcher, of the community. She leaves a daughter, several grand children and many friends to mourn her loss. The funeral services were conducted at the residence, by Rev. G. R. Abrel after which the remains were interred in the family burying ground.

We have been requested by the better element of the colored people of this community to remind the grand jury of the lawless conduct of many of the race who live in the immediate vicinity of this place. Only a short time ago a colored man was killed in the suburbs of town, and fights and other disturbances of other character are frequent occurrences. Persons who will not, from a sense of duty and citizenship, respect the law should be made to do so. This unlawful conduct on the part of some of the young colored men, is not only humiliating to the better element of the race, but a source of great annoyance. There is work for the coming grand jury, and colored people who want to see the law enforced should do everything in their power to get proper witnesses before the body.

Mr. J. F. Russell, of Louisville, an experienced watch-maker, is now with Mr. Frank Jackman. He has been employed by leading jewelers of Louisville, and he also spent seven years in the Elgin Watch Factory. He guarantees first-class work at living prices. Bring or send your watches, clocks and jewelry needing repair to Jackman's store, Columbia, Ky. 25-21

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Stone, died Sunday evening. The interment was in the city cemetery Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Stone have the sympathy of the community.

FRIDAY EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT.

Misses Rowe, Walker and Taylor, Greeted by a Large Audience.

The entertainment given at the Presbyterian Church last Friday evening by Miss Elizabeth Rowe, member of the M. and F. Elocution class, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Walker, of the music class, drew a full house and from the beginning to the close received evidence of the hearty appreciation of all present. The selections were fine and the renditions were up to the highest standard and clearly show thorough training as well as the adaptation of the young ladies talents to elocution and music. In response to a pressing invitation Miss Taylor recited a most appropriate selection and thoroughly impressed the audience as an elocutionist of marked abilities. The power to bring out the true spirit and motive of an author, to drive home to the souls of the hearers the inspiration of the narrative or the sublimity of music was clearly and forcefully manifested both by Miss Rowe, as an elocutionist, and by Miss Walker's skillful touch of piano keys.

The entertainment reflects much credit both on the part of the young ladies and their instructors, Mr. Ohlenmacher in music and Miss Taylor in Elocution.

A telegram from Memphis, Tenn., Saturday afternoon, to Mr. Fred McLean, announced that his sister, Mrs. E. L. Hamilton, of McCrory, Ark., had been awarded damages against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company in the sum of $4,000 by a jury in the circuit court in that city, for injuries received in a wreck near Horse Cave, Ky., the latter part of July, 1904, while returning to her home from a visit to relatives in this place, from which she has never recovered. Mrs. Hamilton is a daughter of Mrs. Sallie F. McLean, and a sister of Messrs. J. L. George, Fred, Herbert and Miss Virginia McLean, all of this city.

Great things are to be desired more that they can be bestowed upon those we love than for the mere pleasure of their possession. The plaudit of an admiring public is sweet to the ear when it is deserved by honest endeavor and faithful performance, but to be able to share this honor with others and to be able to bestow some of that which has been so well earned brings a reward for ambition that cannot be obtained by jealousy guarding it and appropriating everything to one's self.

The local committee has arranged for a big picnic to be held at the Fair Grounds on June 19, 1906, where it is expected all the visitors to "Home Coming" will meet their old friends. The Committee requests every person, who have friends or relatives living out of the State, to send the name and address to G. P. Smythe, Secy, Columbia, Ky., so that he can mail to them an invitation.

Mr. J. Knox Mitchell, of Osborne, Kansas, writes his brother, Mr. M. L. Mitchell, this place, that he is very anxious to be at the reunion the 19th of June, and will make an effort to get here. He and his wife will leave Kansas in a few weeks for Kentucky and while in the state will visit a number of points, including the Mammoth Cave.

Mr. O. A. Barnett, of Louisville, reached Columbia last Thursday afternoon and Friday morning he entered the laundry of this place as foreman. Mr. Barnett is an experienced man and comes to Columbia well recommended. He is well pleased with the plant here and says first-class work will be turned out.

BETTIE AND MARTHA.

Accomplished Daughters of Judge Hancock, Given a Cordial Greeting.

The Presbyterian Church was well-filled last Monday evening, the drawing cards being Misses Bettie and Martha Hancock, who entertained most admirably. The musical talents of these young ladies are known throughout the community, and upon this occasion they were at their best, rendering their selections without defects, so skillfully and melodiously, that fresh laurels were added to their merited reputations. As a pianist, Miss Bettie ranks with the scientific performers, and as a soloist, Miss Martha is universally appreciated by all lovers of sweet singing. Every selection rendered secured plaudits from the audience, and the young ladies were honored with many handsome flowers.

PROVED FATAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Massie, who live in the Cane Valley country, have the sympathy of the people of Columbia in their recent bereavement. Their little boy, Willie, who fell in a tub of hot water, reported in the News last week, died in a few hours after the accident. He was idolized by parents and grand parents and indeed, it was hard to give him up. But God, who said "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not," knew best. To the sorrowing family we would say weep not for the dear boy who has been taken, but be ready to meet him on the other shore. He had never committed a sin, hence he is with the angel band, where there is neither pain nor sickness, but where halleluiah are sung unceasingly.

MRS. EMILY DUDLEY.

Last Friday night, at her late home, near Glenville, the subject of this notice closed her eyes in death after a long illness, a victim of pulmonary trouble. She was 39 years old, a consistent member of the United Brethren Church, and a most excellent lady. She was a sister of J. W. Marshall, who is known to many people in Adair county. Her parents preceded her to the grave several years ago.

The funeral discourse was preached Saturday afternoon by Rev. G. R. Abrell, many relatives and friends being present. The interment was near her old home.

GREEN RIVER FARM FOR SALE.

My farm 1 mile south of Little Lake on Green river containing 304 acres 1 mile from church and school. Good buildings of all kinds, 2 good orchards and is a desirable home. Has ample timber for keeping up the farm and $400 of merchantable timber standing. There are 48 acres of bottom land worth more than I ask for the entire farm. $2500 buys the entire farm as I want to go west. This is your chance if you want a good home and profitable farm.

THE HOME COMING.

In a few weeks many people who were born and reared in Adair county will reach Columbia for the purpose of holding communion with friends of their earlier days. The citizens of this county should have nothing undone, but make ample preparations to entertain visitors whose homes are in distant States. The Fair Grounds have been selected for the Adair County meeting and the date is June 19. There will be provisions for every body, good music and a general handshaking throughout the day.

NOVEL GROWTH OF TOBACCO.

The National Council of Horticulture, through its committee, says of the scarlet tobacco plant: "One of the flower novelties of last year which was successfully grown by many experts is a tobacco plant which produces scarlet flowers, nicotiana Sanderae. It is named for its producer, an expert of England. The plant was originated by crossing two South American tobacco plants, one of which had white and the other red flowers. The result was a flower varying from a light pink to the deepest red. Planted in the foreground of a border of the more familiar nicotiana affinis, which has white, star-shaped flowers of a wonderfully sweet fragrance, a combination of color most striking is produced.

"A pleasing characteristic of this tobacco plant is the flowering time, which begins at twilight and lasts until the hot rays of the following day wither the blossoms. Thus it is in bloom at the time when it is most appreciated by persons returning from a weary day's work. The plants are easily grown from seed sown on pulverized soil. Another method is to sow the seed in shallow boxes and transplant, when the fourth or fifth leaf has appeared, to open beds.

"This plant appears to bear flowers all summer long, and with ordinary care should succeed under a great number of conditions. It has been successfully tested in England, Germany and the United States. It has done well in sunlight and partial shade.

It was eight years ago last Tuesday since Admiral Dewey demolished the Spanish hulks in Manila bay, and at the anniversary celebration of the event Admiral Dewey took occasion to say that the American people from day to day will become more conscious of the value of the Philippines, and will never give them up. There may be some personal pride mingled in this estimate of the strategic and commercial worth of the archipelago, but the facts do not warrant the expectation. The islands have already cost the country more than they will come to in a hundred years, and the cost is still going on. In the eight year since their possession there is not much evidence of a lively American trade with our subjects, and the tariff relations with them hardly indicate a very sincere purpose to encourage it. The truth is, the islands have been and always will be a burden, the returns from which will never be realized in commercial or beneficial results.—Stanford Journal.

There is no reasonable excuse for any man to live in town if he doesn't like it. If you have no word of commendation to say for your town, its institutions or people, emigrate, you won't stop the town clock by going away. The church bells will have the same musical ring, the little dog will play just as well and the pure air, bright sunshine and sparkling water will have the same health giving properties. Speak good for your neighbor, if you can; if you cannot, don't everlastingly enlarge on their faults. If you have become thoroughly disgruntled move away; go somewhere where it will suit you.

OBITUARY.

One of Adair county's oldest and most respected citizens went to her reward last Sunday evening when Mrs. Bettie Wells passed over the "river of Death," and went to that land from whence no traveler ever returns.

Mrs. Wells was 83 years old. She was married in her early life to Mr. William Wells, and for several years has been living with her daughter, Mrs. Eliza McKinley. She died in the triumph of a Christian faith. Her funeral services were conducted by Mr. Nathan Murrell at the home of S. McKinley and the remains were taken to Russell county, near Mt. Pleasant Church, by a large crowd of relatives and friends.

The deceased left one daughter, Mrs. Eliza McKinley, and several grandchildren, all of whom have the sympathy of this community.

MYRTIE C.
Ozark, Ky.

The newspaper men of Kentucky were never bound so closely together as now, and when their proposed warfare on cheap John politicians and burr-tailed legislators begins, you may look for a rattling of dry bones the like of which has never been witnessed. Instead of serving as the door mat of the community, as in former years, the newspaper men of Kentucky to-day are the most independent set of professional men in the State. They think and act for themselves, and are led by the nose by no man or set of men.—Lancaster Record.

LEARN TO FORGET.

Do you think he cares for me?" is the question that I am asked more often than any other.

As a rule it means that the man has grown cold and careless in his attentions and that the girl cannot bear to give him up.

She clings to the last ray of hope in the form of asking my advice, trusting that I may be able to console her.

It goes to my heart to have to tell her to put him out of her mind, and yet I know it is the wisest course for her to follow.

It is absolutely impossible to rekindle the ashes of a man's love.

To him the love is as "dead as yesterday's seven thousand years."

With a woman it is different. She may outgrow her love for a man, but he will always stand apart from other men, surrounded by a halo of memory and tender regret.

To try to hold a man when he is anxious to go is the greatest folly. He will go any way, and she is a wise girl who accepts the inevitable and sends him away before he goes of his own accord.

There is not a girl in a thousand who cannot tell when a man's interest in her begins to wane.

It is natural to make an effort to hold him, but don't lose sight of your pride and dignity in the effort.

When there is another girl in the case, the effort is simply love's labor lost.

I know that the advice, "try and forget him," seems cold and unsympathetic, but it is better to cut deep in the first place and avoid having to hurt a second time.

Trying to forget is weary, heart breaking work, but it can be done, and at least you will have the comfort of having saved your pride.

Some of you are throwing your hearts away on men who are not worth the sacrifice. They are the men above all others to forget.

You think that it will break your hearts to give them up but, dear girls, hearts don't break as easily as we sometimes think they do.

We often mistake heartache for heartbreak.

When your parents, your friends, and your own common sense tell you that a man is unworthy, give him up.

Work hard, fill your mind with other interests, fight bravely and in time you will conquer.

Pride will help you forget the man who has forgotten you.

It will be harder for you to give up the man who, all unworthy though he may be, still pleads for your love. But you must let him go, because sooner or later he will neglect and wound you.

Some day the right man will come along and then you will be very thankful that you have not thrown your heart away on the wrong one.—Beataire Fairfax.

RATE LEGISLATION.

The railroad rate bill is still the storm center in politics. The Democrats generally, favor a measure that would give adequate relief to the people without doing injustice to the railroads. The consolidation of transportation facilities has reached such a point in this country that seven combinations control practically all the railroads and wield such vast power that the people are absolutely unable to prevent abuses. The Democrats want a law giving the Interstate Commerce Commission authority to fix reasonable rates, and forbidding any interference by the courts, or such a limited court-review, as will prevent the nullifications of the work of the Commission by interlocutory court orders, and leave the rates fixed by the Commission in full force until the final hearing and decree in the case. But a number of Republican Senators insist on the broadest possible review by the courts, including the power to suspend the Commission's rates by an interlocutory order or temporary injunction before the final hearing. Judging from the debates in both Houses, Congress will hardly pass the bill without providing for some sort of court review; but the Democrats will insist on limiting that power.

Henderson, Union and Webster county farmers may form a tobacco stemmery.

TARIFF REFORM IN 1906

President Roosevelt's recommendation to Congress that alcohol for use in the arts be placed on the free list is a blow aimed at the Standard Oil monopoly as directly as the temporary suspension of the tariff on coal during the great anthracite strike was at the Coal Trust. Both are concessions to the Democratic principle that high protective tariff fosters monopoly and places in the hands of monopolists vast powers of oppression and extortion.

In the anthracite strike of 1902-3 the protective tariff on coal helped the coal barons to prolong their quarrel with the miners, regardless of the convenience or welfare of the masses, who daily needed coal for industrial, commercial or domestic uses.

The suspension of the coal tariff was a sharp reminder that the Government was not wholly innocent to protect the citizen against the reckless sacrifice of private interests to monopoly greed. It seemed, also, to suggest the reserve powers that might be brought into play under the anti-trust act. The result was the immediate easing off in coal prices which naturally settled to something like the normal level.

The President's recommendation of untaxed denaturalized alcohol is aimed to break the Standard Oil Company's monopoly in articles of universal utility. But if such monopolies can be broken by removing props which legislation has set under them, why should not all such props be removed? Why in fact, should legislation set up such props for monopoly to build upon?

The Democratic party holds and will proclaim in the Congressional campaigns of this year, that the whole system by which special interests are given the right to rob and oppress all other interests is false in principle and vicious in practice. The Republican party, it is now evident, will not budge one inch from its traditional position that the manufacturing interests of this country should have the right to levy tribute upon all other interests and industries, regardless of their merit or of their value in the general economy of the country.

The Republican leaders prefer that the Democratic party should win in this year's elections on a tariff reform platform rather than the growing tariff reform sentiment among Republican voters should find expression through a Republican Congress. They prefer the tariff revision shall be undertaken by Democrats rather than by Republicans.

The Democratic party accepts the responsibility and is likely to make tariff revision a paramount issue in 1906. Democrats do not hold that American industries should be exposed to foreign attack or discrimination. In the entire history of the Government antedating the advent of the Republican party there was hardly a tariff act in which some protection, direct or indirect, was not extended to nascent American industries.

The doctrine that tariff should be shaped, not to protect American industry, but to give to certain of those industries the right to fatten and grow rich at the expense of all others, had its birth with the Republican party, and it is a doctrine which the Democrats will never accept.

The keynote of Democratic action in 1906 was sounded by the Democrats of Kansas in their State convention, declaring that the dingly tariff is the greatest of all grafts and the source of the despotism which the people suffer at the hands of trusts. It is a direct challenge of the Republican claim that unnecessary and burdensome taxes on everything that enters into general use are a good thing for the people who pay the taxes. And the nomination of ex-Senator Harris emphasizes the position of Kansas Democrats in this matter even more strongly than does their platform.

The Democrats propose in this campaign to generalize the special remedies which President Roosevelt applied to the Coal Trust and which he desires to apply to the Standard Oil monopoly. To the big stick of President Roosevelt the Democratic party prefers the Jeffersonian principle of "Equal rights to all, special privileges to none."—St. Louis Republic.

WHAT REPUBLICANS STAND FOR.

The platform adopted at the late Indiana Republican State Convention stands pat for "the time-honored republican doctrine of protection" and further declares that the Republican party is "the friend of the protective policy through good and evil report" and adds that it "can be trusted to make changes in tariff schedules whenever more good than evil will result." As the convention was dominated by Fairbanks and Beveridge who are ardently for the ship-subsidy steel, of course they and their henchmen stand for the plundering tariff, which allows the trusts to sell cheaper to foreigners than to our own people. They doubtless stand for the Republican "time-honored custom" of bleeding the tariff fostered trusts and protected combines of campaign funds so as to have the chance to continue the plundering of the many for the benefit of the few. It is well known they stand for this through good and bad report and "can be trusted" to fool the people as long as the voters allow them to do so.

It is all right to be open and above board in word and in action. Frank open-heartedness is a characteristic greatly to be desired, but if we possess this excellent quality let us not use it in a way that will offend others. It may be all right to speak plainly one's mind, if done at the proper time and place, yet it should always be done in a careful and polite manner. For remember that to be considerate of the feelings of others is also a virtue, and while observing one, we should not forget the other. Be kindly considerate to every one.

The Republican bosses, who have been somewhat staggered by the jolt the people have lately given them, are appearing in the garb of reformers, so as to get their feet in the trough again.

BRYAN IN JAPAN.

"Japan has had a number of distinguished visitors, English and American, during the last couple of years, but not one of them, however high his position or brilliant his uniform, has made such an impression upon the Japanese people for good as Mr. W. J. Bryan," writes one of our missionaries to the Interior. "I will confess," he continues, "that I was much prejudiced against him, but on meeting him I found him a simple unaffected Christian gentleman. While he saw no reason to assume the functions of an evangelist, he saw none for denying his faith. He was at all times and in all places the orthodox, devout believer. He addressed our schools upon questions of the highest interests to the family and State. He was not a temperance lecturer, but his practice of total abstinence deeply impressed the Japanese, so that at the banquet spread in his honor no liquors were served. Mr. Bryan had for some time in his home in Nebraska a young Japanese student who is now living with his parents in remote part of the island; but Mr. Bryan, faithful to his promise made years ago, undertook a long and difficult journey to visit the young man and his parents."

Rev. George O. Barnes, the famous evangelist, has been preaching in Alcorn's Opera House since last Wednesday to large audiences. On Sunday morning by invitation he filled the pulpit at the Christian church. He will probably not continue the meeting here longer than Wednesday evening. No one can hold an audience more spell-bound than this distinguished octogenarian, who has traversed the globe in his work.—Hustonsville Cor. to Stanford Journal.

POLITICAL.

Senator W. A. Clark, of Montana, announces that he is not a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate.

Gov. W. O. Bradley has been in Frankfort several times lately and it is reported that he will be put forward for the Republican nomination for Governor in 1907.

Congressman James M. Richardson says the Republicans are all torn up and he confidently expects that not only a Democratic House but a President, as well, will be elected next time.

When Gov. Hoch appointed Mrs. Stanley to the Board of Charities and then promptly attempted to kiss her, it was probably with the idea that charity should begin at home.—Louisville Times.

The biggest fight in the history of Tennessee ended last Saturday when the people of the State, at a primary, selected a United States Senator.

Urey Woodson has been named by Thomas Taggart, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, as a member of the subcommittee which will assist the Congressional committee in making a fight for control of the next House.

Gov. Hoch is said to have his eye on the Presidency. The kissing incident didn't prevent his renomination neither did the Maria Halpin incident defeat Grover Cleveland, so he seems to think that these little mix-ups with women help more than they hurt.

T. A. Wright, who had announced himself a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Tennessee, has withdrawn from the contest. H. Clay Evans is the only remaining candidate.

ROOSEVELT AND HUGHES.

Perhaps the only Republican in New York who had strength enough with the people to be elected Governor of that State next Fall was Charles E. Hughes.

President Roosevelt wouldn't like to see Hughes elected Governor, however, lest he should become a presidential possibility in 1908. And so he has shelved Hughes by having him appointed associate counsel in the coal trust investigation. There is a convenient shelf somewhere for every Republican in New York who may be suspected of popularity. Roosevelt is more prudent than he seems to be. He knows how easy it is to slide from the executive office at Albany to the white house; and he doesn't want a Republican elected Governor of New York this year. He will probably cause Odell to be nominated, and then treat him as he did Ivin's in the Mayoralty contest last year.

A UNITED DEMOCRACY.

The chairman of the Democratic convention of Kansas, in his address to the delegates sounded a key note that will have interest in Massachusetts, and shows that a united Democracy from the East to the West and North and South is again to be an accomplished fact. "The people of Kansas," said he, "send this slogan across the Mississippi valley and over the Appalachian mountains to New England. We are for free raw material, and we are willing to give to the laborer of the East, free hides in competition with our hides, because the beef trust robs us even of the hair, and then sells the balance to the Eastern manufacturer at a higher and fixed price, so that the poor are shoeless. Our Republican Congressmen have misrepresented us long enough. We are in favor of the old fashioned doctrine as enunciated by Samuel J. Tilden and re-enunciated by Grover Cleveland of a tariff for revenue only. The time is past when we should protect trusts and capitalistic combinations. Protection, as declared by the Republican party, is now used as an aid to the rich to become richer and for the poor to become poorer." Hurrah! for the untainted Democracy of Kansas.

President Roosevelt evidently thinks the Democrats will elect a majority of the next Congress, for he is said to have decided to call a special session after the 4th of March for the purpose of revising the tariff. He knows as well as any one that if the Republicans should again have a majority of Congress it would be useless to call a special session for the standpatters would be in control.

The Adair County News.

Published Every Wednesday

Adair County News Company.

INCORPORATED.

CHAS. S. HARRIS, EDITOR.

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interests of the city of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as second-class mail matter.

WED. MAY 16, 1906.

The baccalaureate sermon of the M. and F. High School, preached last Sunday forenoon in the Presbyterian church, by Rev. A. R. Kasey, was one of the most forceful, most appropriate discourses we ever heard in the pulpit in this part of the State. His subject, "A Call to Duty," was handled in a masterly way and impressed his many hearers with the broadest view of education, of right living and high ideals of life. To the young, in the main, he directed his line of thought, picturing the straight path of duty in the pursuit of imperishable riches, the forming, building and maintaining character and worth by unflinching, unyielding persistency in following high and noble ideals. It was a discourse elevating and invigorating to the young and the old alike, but particularly to those who are still pursuing authors and following the deepest thinkers of the ages past. In pointing out man's greatest duty to God and man, in advising a course that leads to the most exalted stations and useful ends, it was briefly outlined in the reading of the 8th chapter of Proverbs and pressed home to the haed and heart in his many striking and forceful arguments. The truth is that too few sermons of this kind are heard, and especially in this day when commercialism seems to engross and almost monopolize the minds and efforts of the rising generation. It may be said that preaching does no good, that the pulpit can not check the tendency of the age to collect fortunes and seek honors in the affairs of men, but the saying will not stand the test of time. Right thinking must precede right living and right living is the fruit of knowledge. We feel it a duty as well as a privilege to commend that sermon to the young people who were fortunate enough to hear it. Treasure its truths, live within its limits and your reward will be great.

The editor of The Somerset Journal, writing from Frankfort, says: The action of the commission appointed to locate the two Normal Schools, provided for by act of Legislature, appears to meet general approbation. The Central and Eastern part of the State is pleased with the location at Richmond, and the Western and Southern part is conveniently served at Bowling Green. The splendid contributions from these cities of suitable buildings relieves the State Treasury of the burden of providing buildings and appurtenances, making it probable that other schools will be established in a few years for the convenience of Northern and Southeastern sections; Wayne, Pulaski, Boyle, Shelby, Franklin and Oldham counties form the line of division; all west of these counties belong to the Western district; all east to the Eastern district.

Ex-Governor, Robert Taylor, defeated Senator Carmack for the Democratic nomination for Senator by a majority of 20,000. We rejoice with the majority in this victory and trust that Senator Carmack, able as he is, will accept the decision of the Democrats of his state in his retirement in good humor, for "Our Bob," as he is familiarly called, is the most popular man that lives within Sunny Tennessee.

"Kentucky Eloquence" is the title of a new book soon to appear. A Louisville firm is the publisher and it will contain some of the brightest gems of oratory heard in this grand old State. Col. T. P. Hill and Judge M. C. Saufley, of Stanford, have agreed to contribute. Only men of the highest oratorical ability will be accorded space in the publication which promises to be a most interesting one.

Rolla Hart will not enter the race this year for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 9th district. The prospective candidates are, W. A. Young, of Rowan county, and Virgil McKnight, of Mason county.

W. H. Sylvester, President of the First National Bank, Montezuma, Indiana, was shot and killed at home last week by his brother whose mind is believed to be unbalanced.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis, widow of the President of the Southern Confederacy, is critically ill in New York. She is nearly Eighty years of age. All the South are in sympathy with her.

A private letter from Mr. Bryan, written from Egypt, indicates that if it is the wish of the party he will stand for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency in the next contest.

It is said that Thomas Drewry, of Louisville, will be a candidate for Railroad Commissioner next time, opposing the present incumbent, Hon. C. C. McCord, of Springfield.

The Methodist Conference in the South was asked to pass a law requiring ministers to give up tobacco upon ordination.

This Horse will make the season at our barn in Columbia at $10 to insure a living colt. In all cases when the mare is traded, removed from the neighborhood or bred to other stock, the money becomes due and must be paid at time of said transaction. 22

Coffey Bros., Columbia : : Kentucky.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me to death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven, permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at T. E. Paul's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

IRVIN'S STORE.

We had lots of frost here last Tuesday, but no damage was done.

The wheat crop here is nearly headed, and a freeze which is threatened, would ruin it.

"Uncle" Enoch Rainwater is very sick.

Jonas Hammond, of Royaltan, was here Friday.

R. P. Smith is in the city this week buying more goods.

W. A. Jackson suffered a severe loss by the engine of his mill blowing up yesterday, and it seems miraculous that no one was hurt, as there were a number of hands working about the mill.

Miss Daisy Jackson and Harry Price, of New Albany, Ind., were married last Friday and departed for that place Monday.

The Fonthill roller mill is being put down, and before long will be printed on the bag will guarantee whiteness and fineness equal to any, and superior to many.

Cleansed Out.

When a deep collar becomes filled with heavy, poisonous air it is never safe to go into it until it has been cleaned out. When your body has been poisoned with the foul residues of undigested food, it is just as necessary to clean it out. To do this pleasantly and safely take Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It is a pure scientific preparation which has no equal in the cure of constipation, headache, biliousness and stomach trouble. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, of Columbia, and Page and Moore, Cane Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

Jordan Peacock---The Greatest Horse

In Kentucky

JORDAN PEACOCK will make the present season at Gradyville, Kentucky, and will serve mares at $15 to insure a living colt one week old. If any mare should loose a colt by carelessness or rough treatment then the season is due. Jordan Peacock has sired more high priced colts than any horse in Kentucky. Cotton and mules have their ups and downs but The Peacocks are Always Up—The Horse Buyers are always Looking for Peacocks, and pay from two to three times as much for them as they do any others. Last Fall his Suckling Colts Sold from $100.00 to $185.00; Flowers Bros. sold a 2-year-old mare for $325; a 4-year-old gelding sold March 8, in a pair for $825.00. Did you ever know of any other horses in this part of the State that sold for such prices? When you breed to Jordan you are going to get a good Colt and one that's ready money as soon as it hits the ground. There have been some men that have sold their colts as soon as they bred the mares.

Now if you want to raise the best, bring your mares to Jordan Peacock.

CAPTAIN PEACOCK, A 3-YEAR-OLD STALLION

By Jordan Peacock and Dam by Colonel Tom, will make the season for $10 to insure. Captain Peacock is the best prospect I have ever seen. He has been shown at the Columbia Fair from a suckling colt up, under halter, single and double, and has worn the Blue every time and has defeated some of the best age horses shown at the Fair. Bring your mares to my Horses and you are sure to get a colt and a good one.

KENTUCKY KING, one of the finest models in the State, Sired by Red Squirrel No. 53 and out of R. F. Paul's brood mare, will make the present season at my stable and will be permitted to serve mares at $15.00 to insure a living colt, one week old.

PEDIGREE.—Vol. 6, register No. 2278, dam, Maud Coe, No. 2495, by Alexander's Lexington, No. 2208; Second dam, Maud White by Artist, No. 75.

PARTISAN POLITICS.

The partisan persistence of the Republican managers is refusing to agree on the bill to admit Oklahoma is entirely opposed to public opinion on this question. The Senate, for once at least, is actually in agreement with the Democrats that justice be done to nearly one million citizens who have made their homes in Oklahoma and Indian Territory. The question of the admission of Arizona and New Mexico as one state has been very properly left by the Senate amendment to the vote of the people, but to this the Republican majority of the House refuse to agree. When these standpat members are asking for endorsement next Fall the voters should give them a dose of their own medicine and refuse to re-elect those who would not trust the people.

William Yancey Erwin, sixty-six years old, of Hopkinsville, has declared himself a poet, and it is said will publish a book of "original poems, rhymes and acrostics."

In our everyday life we meet many people who are always ready to find fault with the actions of their fellow men. It is an easy matter for almost anyone to condemn the doings of others, and one does not need an extraordinary amount of brains to do so; yet it seems to be practically impossible for those belonging to this class of critics to do better themselves. Criticism consists not in finding fault, or censuring and condemning deeds, but in being able to discuss them fairly and intelligently.

MUST PAY UP.

The new Revenue and Taxation law, as passed by the recent Kentucky Legislature, makes a number of changes and provisions which will materially effect the tax payer and the sheriff. For one thing it does away with the practice of some taxpayers getting two and three years behind in the payment of their taxes and fixes it so that the sheriff of a county is no longer permitted to indulge such delinquents by carrying them from one to three years after their taxes are due. The new law provides that all tax payers whose taxes are not paid on or before the first day of November of each year shall be deemed delinquent and a penalty of six percent. will be added. Furthermore the law provides that within fifteen days after any taxpayer becomes delinquent, the sheriff shall make and certify to the county clerk a list of all such delinquents, the amount of tax etc. The county clerk is then required within ten days after such list is filed to issue a tax warrant against each delinquent in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The tax warrant shall be directed to the sheriff commanding him to collect of the delinquent tax, interest, penalty and costs, and if not paid on demand to distrain and sell the estate of the delinquent, or a sufficient amount thereof to satisfy the tax, interest and costs. Heretofore it has been the practice of the Sheriff to refrain from forcing the sale of a taxpayer's property to satisfy a tax bill, so long as there was a reasonable chance of collecting the claim without such action but the new law does not permit the sheriff to indulge the taxpayer. The law will make it pretty hard on some taxpayers,

TO END PLUTOCRACY.

An official statement by the President of the United States naturally attracts widespread attention.

When President Roosevelt recently suggested that there be a graduated tax on inheritances, he caused something of a panic among the very wealthy people who, through high-handed transactions, have been growing immensely rich.

In financial circles, the President's utterances were denounced as socialistic. That the head of a Government now under the influence of the money power should boldly declare a plethora of wealth to be a threat to our institutions, was quite a shock to the heads of great trusts and monopolies.

Henry Watterson has the right idea about the growth of the estates which are greater than the Croesuses of old ever dreamed of. The tariff is the mother of the trusts, and the trusts enable a few "captains of industries" to amass wealth which is greater than that ever possessed by the powerful princes of India.

Let the people elect members of Congress who will smash the tariff wall. Then the danger of a continuation of the accumulation of immense fortunes will be over. President Roosevelt's idea might be applied thereafter.—Albany Press.

Wrote His Own Marriage Notice.

Bert Headly, editor of the Gaylord (Kan.) Sentinel, was married a few days ago to Miss Gertrude White. Being an editor, Mr. Headly took the liberty of writing his own marriage notice, which he did in the following humorous style:

"This is the first instance in several years of newspaper work that the writer has dared to tell the truth about a wedding without fear of getting licked, and does so now with keen relish. The groom is an editor and is not an accomplished and popular leader of society; but in fact, he doesn't know as much about it as a rabbit. His hair is red and freckles on his face crowd each other for room. In the dust it is hard to distinguish him from a telephone pole. He has never considered that the future looked very bright or promising—it has always kept him too busy paying his board bills to have any dreams about future greatness. He is just a common sort of fellow and claims distinction only in that he is a Kansan from the sole of his clumsy feet to the top of his head. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. White, and was born and reared in the Solomon valley. Judging from the job she has taken on her hands she is a young lady of more than ordinary nerve.

Democrats are getting together on the good old principles laid down by Jefferson and are united on the Jackson and Tilden war cries of "retrenchment and reform."

It is said Charley Lewis, of Shelbyville has contracted the State Senatorial malady, and although young, will make good timber.

WITH OUR CORRESPONDENTS

GRADYVILLE.

Thos. Gowan was in town Friday.

The new bank has not been located yet.

The cold weather last week had our people uneasy about their gardens.

Rev. G. Y. Wilson filled his regular appointment here last Sunday with an interesting discourse.

N. H. Moss spent several days last week in Metcalfe looking after a saw mill.

C. S. Bell spent a few days this week at Burkesville looking after stock.

Gov. J. R. Hindman was here the first of the week looking after his farming interests.

Tobacco plants are about ready for sticking and the prospects are good for a large crop to be set.

Miss Lorena Pile and Geo. T. Flowers, of Columbia, were the Guests of Mrs. C. O. Moss, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hindman visited the home of Mr. W. A. Hindman, near Milltown, Saturday.

Your reporter has taken especial notice of the apple prospects in this section and he finds not one-half of a crop. That means "no dried" here Mr. Lewis.

C. M. Hindman sold C. S. Bell two extra good heifers for $40.

All last week the Wilmore Hotel was full up with commercial men.

J. A. Diddle bought a nice bunch of hogs from G. T. Flowers at $5.65 per hundred.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kemp, of Bradfordsville, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Walker, of Columbia, were the guests of Mr. H. C. Walker and family last Sunday.

Mr. Sandusky, county court clerk of Metcalfe, was here last Friday.

S. D. Caldwell, of Portland, was here Thursday and spent a few hours with J. A. Diddle over the checkerboard.

Mr. Tobe Hughes, of Columbia, is spending a few days with Jim and Charlie Diddle on the farm this week.

Raymond Evans, of Lindsay, Wilson, spent Sunday with J. A. Wilmore.

Rev. Wright, one of our able divines, preached at the Methodist church Sunday night.

One of the most up-to-date book agents that has struck our town for ages is Mr. Billie Gridler, of Weed, who is selling "The Great Destruction of San Francisco."

Our old friend and former neighbor, Prof. P. C. McCaffrey, was shaking hands with friends here a day or so last week.

Mr. J. W. Townsend and wife, Mrs. O. A. Atkins and Miss Anne

Dohoney, of Milltown, were calling on friends here one day last week.

W. P. Nunly and wife were at the Wilmore House one night last week while enroute to Columbia.

Tom Wilson, of Cave City, was with our stockmen last week. Mrs. G. Y. Wilson entertained several of her Scottsville friends last week.

Wesley England, who received a considerable shock from a fall while at work in the mill at this place, has about recovered and is on the stage of action again.

J. T. Hamilton reports prospects good for a crop in the Nell community.

Watch For it.

It will pay you to watch for the very first symptom of indigestion or liver trouble and to prevent the trouble from gaining headway, by quickly taking Dr. Caldwell's (taxative) Syrup Pepsin. Nothing is more weakening to the system than chronic dyspepsia, and all its complications. Nothing will cure it so quickly, pleasantly and surely as Syrup Pepsin. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, of Columbia, and Page and Moore, Cane Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

BLISS.

Mrs. Lizzie Pennington, of Thurlow, is visiting friends in this community.

Dr. U. L. Taylor and wife, of Columbia, were visitors at Dr. W. T. Grissom's Friday.

W. F. and Z. M. Staples, of Columbia, were here Thursday.

Mrs. M. J. Murrell, Columbia, spent a few days of last week with her daughter, Mrs. S. T. Hughes.

C. M. Herriford, sold three calves to E. M. Staples for $24.

H. C. Bottom and son were here Friday.

Heavy coats and hearth fires were things of comfort the past week.

Smith & Nell bought last week of Ed Staples, 5 hogs and from J. O. and B. F. Grissom 14 hogs at $5.40 per cwt.

J. D. Flowers and wife, of Columbia, spent a few days with the family of M. L. Grissom last week.

C. M. Herriford visited in Columbia Thursday.

There are great complaints about cut worms playing havoc with young corn during the cool spell.

Miss Minnie Kemp, of the M. & F. High School faculty, was here Saturday and Sunday the guest of her pupil Wallace Grissom.

Corn planted some time ago is coming up well and is being worked over for the first time.

Wheat is heading out and the prospect is good for a crop.

Famous Strike Breakers.

The most famous strike breakers in the land are Dr. King's New Life Pills. When liver and bowels go on strike, they quickly settle the trouble, and the purifying work goes right on. Best cure for constipation, headache and dizziness. 25c at T. E. Paul's drugist.

BRADFORDSVILLE.

TO FRIENDS AT GRADYVILLE:

If there is a people upon earth that I love more than any other it is the citizenship of Gradyville. I notice in the News a prospective bank at your place. Now if my friends and relatives are building a bank for their convenience it is all right, but if for an investment it will certainly be a mistake. We have a bank at Bradfordsville and we are all satisfied and our stock sold sometime ago at $1.10 and we make 6 per cent. per annum interest. But we are nine miles from Lebanon and 20 to 25 miles from any other bank. While our loans and deposits run about $50,000, still we make only 6 per cent. So you see our bank with such large territory, in a good country, is only a convenience and not a money maker. Some promoters or organizers of banks make money out of the organization in the way of furnishing the fixtures, safe and cashier and then go away, leaving the stockholders with the bag to hold.

Consider well the proposition before you are right then go ahead if you like.

Sincerely,

J. C. YATES.

Let Everybody Work.

And the world would be more happy and contented. Just consider how much pain and trouble results in your body when your liver or stomach stop working. Happily, you can soon set them to work again, cure your pains and restore yourself to health and contentment, with Dr. Caldwell's (taxative) Syrup Pepsin. Try it. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, Columbia, and Page and Moore, Cane Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

KNIFLEY.

Plenty of rain the last ten days and farm work very much retarded. Some farmers are done planting corn, others haven't planted any; gardens look well but need cultivation.

Wheat, oats and grasses never looked better for the season. Tobacco plants are plentiful but no land prepared for transplanting.

Vergil Knifley bought a span of horses from W. T. Hendrickson, of Casey's Creek, for $225.

H. B. Ingram has been very sick for several weeks.

Dr. J. C. Gose is building a new yard fence, adding much to the appearance of his premises.

The drummers have become so numerous with our merchants that it is impossible to give them personal mention.

A. C. Wheeler has a blackberry vine called the "Evergreen" purchased of the Knoxville Nursery, that is three years old and is claimed to produce a white berry. It is now in full bloom.

J. H. Tucker was in our town a few days ago and reports farmers very much behind with their work.

The Kentucky Singletree and Spoke Co., are receiving hickory timber rapidly at this time, owing to wet weather.

Z. T. Campbell was in this section the other day closing F. W. Miller's last year tax books.

Clean House To-day.

Don't wait till to-morrow, but clean house today, with Dr. Caldwell's (taxative) Syrup Pepsin. Of course we mean your house of flesh and bone--your body. This is the best house you own, and should get the most care. Yet most people neglect it in a dreadful manner. As a result, stomach, liver, and bowels soon get out of order, and cause great pain, distress and dangerous internal diseases. The only safe, sure cure, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It clears out all causes of sickness, cures constipation and indigestion, cleans house and makes you well. Try it. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, of Columbia, and Page and Moore, Cane Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

ROWS X ROADS.

There will be a Decoration at Moore's school house three miles southeast of Jamestown, May 30, 1906. The following are invited to speak on that day: Capt. W. W. Bradshaw, Capt. John L. Phelps, Revs. F. J. Rarger, A. Whitten, G. R. Abrel, Joseph Goodman, Hon. O. B. Bertram, James Moore and S. B. Collins. All are invited to attend. Thomas Hadley, Chairman.

The Dedication at Hays' Chapel last Sunday was a success in every way. Brother Hulse preached a great sermon to the delight of all, after which he made a call for $108 to free the church from debt, after which he gave the house to the service of the Lord. A large crowd was present and reasonably good order prevailed.

Mrs. Mary Dirting and sons, of Amandaville, were visiting her sister, Susie Hadley here last week.

Miss Annie Dean is visiting her grandmother in New Albany, Ind., this week.

Rev. A. Whitten is in Casey this week trying to get a new church ready for dedication by the first of August, while Bishop Carter will be in this country.

Made Happy For Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment, but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weakness, impoverished blood, etc. Guaranteed by T. E. Paul's drug store. Price 50c.
